JEFF DAVIS IS BITTER THE TWO THINGS

Toward the Press and Scores the Newspapers on the Floor of the Senate Today.

Special to the Herald.

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Denouncing the press with bitter invectives Senator Jeff Davis today made a sensational speech in the senate, as a reply to editorial comments upon the remarks he made upon the floor last December. Admitting that there were some honest newspapers, the senator declared that those criticising him were subsidized by the trusts, and defined them as "damnable imps of pelf and greed." He invited them to do their worst, and urged the senate to purge itself of the charge of being the defender of predatory wealth by doing something for the people.

ELKS' MINSTRELS SOON.

Necessary to Possess a Bank Account

THE first is the Desire or Inclination. Everyone has a wish for money—it is human nature, for it takes money to possess the comforts and necessities of life.

The second requirement is One Dollar or more. The first deposit need not be large, and after the first money is deposited, you have a bank account.

The size of your bank account rests with you.

at the Temple Theatre. These four gentlemen have put on the Elks' minstrel shows throughout the state for the past season, and have been very successful. They just closed an engagement at Corsicana and are at present putting on a show for the Tyler Lodge of Elks for May 13th.

All of the old favorites who made the other Elks' Minstrels such howling successes will appear in this production. A further notice will appear in these columns.

HEALTH THE FOUNDATION OF THIS STORE'S GROWTH.

Health is essential to progress—the vital principle to all life and undertakings. The store that is not founded on correct business principles can never attain the highest place in the eyes of the public. The essence of commercial health is honesty of purpose, straight forward dealings, truthful in advertising, best goods, fairest prices, civil and obliging service, backed by alert enterprise and intelligent direction and management. These are the principles upon which J. S. Temple's Store has been reared and nourished.

Trimming Up Some.

The I. & G. N. terrace is getting a hair cut today that was needed. The little park places near the depot, usually kept in the pink of perfection, the town's pride and the admiration of all travelers, have been allowed to grow up in weeds. It is the hope that the present management will put a gardener to work on these.

BODIES BEING RECOVERED

From the Wrecked Japanese Training Ship—Large Hole Torn in Side.

Special to the Herald.

Tokio, Japan, May 1.—Divers have discovered a large hole torn in the port side of the training cruiser Matsushima, caused by the terrific explosion which sent the boat to the bottom. The explosion also tore the deck into bits. The interior of the ship was so badly wrecked that but few bodies can be recovered. The captain and commander have been brought to the surface. The electric wiring is thought to have caused the explosion.
